

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE PROGRAM

Connecting Kids With Nutritious Food When School's Out

What is a SFSP?

A Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) is a federally funded, State-administered program that reimburses providers who serve nutritious meals and snacks to children and teens in low-income areas when school is not in session, during the months June and July.

Lanakila Kitchen Vendor & Sponsor

Lanakila Kitchen is committed to accessibility. While the USDA provides reimbursement, we ensure meals are provided at no additional cost. Meals are prepared in-house at Lanakila Kitchen from scratch. Additionally, we offer convenient delivery for a $25 fee, waived for orders of 15 meals or more, making healthy options easily accessible.
